

HEALTH & HOME PRODUCTS TRAINING

Find out why LIFETRACK® Nutritional Supplements and Conklin professional-strength cleaners provide the foundation for your family, home, and Conklin business.

Prizes and surprises for those who attend! Come prepared to join in and have FUN!

LEARN HOW TO:

- Incorporate Health & Home Products in your Conklin business on a daily basis.
- Be comfortable in cross-selling products outside your primary product line.
- Present and demonstrate key products found in Conklin's lineup of professional-strength cleaners.
- Demonstrate key selling points and strategies to assist with all of Conklin's product divisions.

Something I've learned from attending this training is that you have to strike while the iron is hot! If you're considering attending Conklin's Health & Home Products Training, join us where it's fun and easy to learn about Conklin's Nutrition and Cleaning Products in a family-type atmosphere.

What others are saying about Conklin's Health & Home Products Training

I attended this training to be educated about the products and learn how to have a professional, clean-looking booth at a trade show. If you are using and promoting the Conklin Health & Home Products, this training should be on your list to attend. Learn about what you sell, why you sell it, and HAVE FUN!
